HOBBIES

In my free time, I like to keep my mind active by reading, playing video games, solving puzzles, listening to diverse music, and enjoying screen-free time outdoors.

ABOUT ME

I'm passionate about problem-solving, crafting pixel-perfect, responsive user interfaces and UX design. My attention to detail, organizational skills, and drive to work with creative teams fuel my enthusiasm for all things frontend.

My experiences have prepared me to understand project development from start to finish, the importance of good planning, teamwork collaboration and communication.

Volunteer:
BSides Copenhagen 2021 - DefensiveCTF challenge creator (frontend).
